

PARENT COUNCIL SUCCESSES

DECEMBER 2010 - JULY 2011

Text messages sent to parents to let them know their child is to receive an award

Sumarized version of our Behaviour Policy is now available

The suggestion box has been moved to the library

Welcomes and good-byes are being put in the Dundry Days

It has been agreed that the 'Stay and Play' sessions will be reinstated for reception parents

Parents were invited to join their children for a picnic on sports day

Parents will be able to come into school to have lunch

We have been able to answer parents queries before they have escalated into bigger problems

We hold regular monthly coffee mornings for parents

We have produced a new induction booklet, using suggestions and ideas from existing parents

We have sent out parent questionnaires for various projects, asking for ideas and suggestions

We have incorporated the lost property with our coffee mornings.
